Biggest Achievements

Reaching the Assessment Centre stage of the BBC Production Talent Pool 2013 intake process, making it into the top 300 of over 4,500 initial candidates.

Raising over £3,000 for charities including Teenage Cancer Trust, Comic Relief and Children in Need.

Being nominated for the Edge Hill University On Course Excellence in Creative Media Scholarship.

Being given £2,500 of government funding from the Youth Opportunities Fund for an online radio project, aged just 16.

Winning the Blackpool HERO Award for Most Enterprising Student in Secondary Education.

Being the youngest person to DJ and organize a successful event at the UK's biggest nightclub, The Syndicate Superclub in Blackpool. I was 16 and the event made a £1,000 profit.

Starting from scratch, the first student radio station on campus at Edge Hill University in 60 years.
